

Can't Lose What You Never Had

Allman Brothers Band

Had a sweet little girl, ran out, took the baby boy
People ain't that sad?
Whoa, I had a sweet little girl, never been ran out
Took the baby boy, ain't that sad? Whoa, you can't spend what you ain't got
You can't lose what you never had
Ah, you can't spend what you ain't got
You can't lose what you never had I had some money in the bank, got busted
People ain't that sad?
Whoa, I had some money in the bank, got busted
People, people, ain't that sad?
But oh, you can't spend what you ain't got
You can't lose what you never had
Ah, you can't spend what you ain't got
You can't lose what you never had I had a sweet little home, got drunk, burned it down
People ain't that sad?
Oh, I had a sweet little home, got drunk, burned it down
People ain't that sad?
Oh, you can't spend what you ain't got
You can't lose what you never had
Oh, you can't spend what you ain't got
You can't lose what you never had
