Leslie

Worn-Tin

Leslie

(Should I Go)

(1st Verse)

And I woke up, in a large tub

I tasted puke in my mouth; I didnâ€™t know where I was

I went outside, to get some air

Leslie stood tall with a plaid shirt and brown hair

I lost my words, as she came close

She said listen to this song that I just wrote

She grabbed the guitar, and sang about ease

Her voice peacefully brought me to my knees

(Chorus 1)

So I hopped on this piano in this old 1970â€™s room

And played her a song that reminded her the moon

And we laughed and we sang about all these types of frustration

I keep climbing up stairs, trying to follow her actions

(2nd Verse)

And then we walked, down into the den

It was a house, with a tree, with an old white picket fence

She sat crossed legged, on the cement floor

Drawing with chalk, 1,2,3,4

(What?)

(Chorus 2)

And then I rubbed on my eyes and then was surprised by a shake

Eyes wide open I soon lost my escape

Oh Leslie girl wonâ€™t you please understand your fate

Iâ€™m a dreamer now and I never thought I would break

(Ending)

I just want to be alone and tell me something I should know and

I just want to leave behind me something thatâ€™s important to me

Hope you find and feel the bliss then holding out to keep the distance

Take away this part of something, but they just feel youâ€™re better off alone

(Piano Solo)
