Without You

Lizz Wright

So you roam and you roam
You say that no place is your home
So I will roam too
I don't wanna stay without youThere's nothing here, nothing here
It's time for me to disappear
If love won't come through
I don't wanna stay without youAnd I know any place I go
All I see, all I see is you there in front of me
Do dreams ever come true?
I don't wanna stay without youI don't wanna stay without you
I don't wanna stay without you
