Rock n Roll Never Looked So Beautiful

Semi Precious Weapons

Sometimes you go to sleep in your make up
Sometimes you take off your pants when you wake up
Sometimes you walk a bridge in your girl shoes
It's okay if you're late because they will always love youSometimes I dream so big
My life just seems so boringRock 'n' roll never looked so beautiful
Rock 'n' roll never looked so beautifulSometimes you bleach your head till it burns
Sometimes your friends tag team and take turns
Sometimes you walk a bridge at midnight
Because when you're broke walking ain't just for the transit strikeSometimes I dream so big
My life just seems so boringRock 'n' roll never looked so beautiful
Rock 'n' roll never looked so beautifulSometimes I cry because it makes my eyes look bluer
Sometimes I bleed because red is a good color for me, yeahPut me in a see through coffin
Stuff me up with minx doll stuffing
Put me in a crystal casket
Before they mix diamonds into my ashesDance around my body
Just because I'm dead don't kill the partyRock 'n' roll never looked so beautiful
Rock 'n' roll never looked so beautiful
