Fears

Paul Hoyle

She had to go and he let her go
Back home
They trusted in love
Distance is between them both now
But new and awesome things will come now
Iâ€™m a little scared she said
So take my hand
Letâ€™s not loose faith, he said
And just remember that

Fears have to go
You must let them go
In order to feel the love
You were looking for

Freedom is the one
Who will open your heart
In order to feel the love
You were looking for

After a while
They realize
That the powerful sky
Was gonna take care of their paths
â€œLife knows more than usâ€•, they said
As the river showed the way they should take

There is always a big plan for you
If you follow your heart (x2)
There is always a big plan for you
If you follow your heart
If you open your heart

Fears have to go
You must let them go
In order to feel the love
You were looking for

Freedom is the one
Who will open your heart
In order to feel the love
You were looking for

You donâ€™t know (x2)
What is gonna come.
It is all (x2)
Up to what you really want
It will come x2
You just have to blindly trust

Fears have to go
You must let them go
In order to feel the love
You were looking for

Freedom is the one
Who will open your heart
You were looking for
