Dirty Work

Halestorm

Get on your knees and let the games begin
Bow to your queen and I will crown your head
'Cause I can make you every inch a king
Before I do tell me, tell me what's in it for me?
I need someone young, willing and able
You need someone old enough to know better
I want you to
Do my dirty work, do my dirty work, oh
Do my dirty work, do my dirty work
Yeah, yeah, yeah, yeah, yeah, c'mon
Do my dirty work, do my dirty work
Let me be your labor of love
My royal garden needs a hired man
Plant your seed, darlin'
My roses are in your hands
I need someone young, willing and able
You need someone old enough to know better
I want you to
Do my dirty work, do my dirty work, oh
Do my dirty work, do my dirty work
Yeah, yeah, yeah, yeah, yeah, c'mon
Do my dirty work, do my dirty work, oh
Do my dirty work, do my dirty work
Yeah, yeah, yeah, yeah, yeah, c'mon
Do my dirty work, do my dirty work
Do my dirty work, do my dirty work
Do my dirty work, do my dirty work
Do my dirty work, do my dirty work
