Bestial Invasion

Destruction

Bestial invasionEarly morning, the mankind sleeps
There's a roaring in the air
Impenetrable fogThunder rolls and lightning strikes
Hell storms rush over the earth
But there's no rainHell storms rush over the earth
Bestial invasionFog cleared up, people scream
They won't believe
That evil takes controlHell storms rush over the earth
Bestial InvasionBestial InvasionYour time is out, obsession spreads
Death rules, Satan's law is in commandHell storms rush over the earth
Bestial InvasionJesus Christ exists no longer
You better pray to the new lord
'Cause he's almightyObey him, obey him
Obey him, obey him, obey
