

Strange (feat. Tech N9ne)

Krizz Kaliko

Breathe deeply my friend
You're normal take it easy
You're only strange you know [Chorus]
It ain't the same
When no one remembers your name
And nobody knows where you came from
And they don't applaud you
They only know you
They only know that you're strange
And nobody knows who to blame and
Everyone knows its the same so
They don't applaud you
They only know you
They only know that you're strange You don't look like everybody else
You don't look like everybody else
You don't look like everybody else
Everybody
I see you lookin' what you lookin' at Gotta get 'em off for the reggie
'Cause I'm a little heavy-er
And I never thought the industry would let me in her
And they know I am no beginner
So I eat her up like its my dinner (Kali)
And I used to get stares from the pair of eyes
Vitiligo get them paralyzed
We sing cling the thing is I am sterilized
He sing sing and scare and they terrified So which way does he go
Ball to the fall every fall in a hole and
I won't stop even at all till I'm am known
The world so cold I make them fall with a quote (okay) Spider K's a rhyme vet I'm next (okay)
But only pretty boys would get laid but I'm sex (okay)
It's almost over for this industry
The blueprint is strange music and you know they mention me
We in your pocket like we're loose change the new thang
Is you could make 'em love it with the strange [Chorus] You don't look like everybody else
You don't look like everybody else
You don't look like everybody else
Everybody
I see you lookin' what you lookin' at Fat guys are in now
Everybody love the guy the thing can't bend down

So if you got your chin down and
If anybody can come in and kill and gut the haters so now
K.O.D. and Seepage make them so their cleavage freakish
Maybe they bust spin out the bus
So we cause the leakage
'Cause its unfair to be this rarity
Thought I would be some charity case
The industry would be scared of my face 'Cause I don't fit in any of they categories
This fat boy will show you how these independent adults make them noises
I was real hard now I'm real easy to look at Breezys don't think I look real fat
My CD ain't easy to put back
See we got's to you lanes
Roll odd to a strange
We're not gonna change
Our shit bangs, nigga! [Chorus] You don't look like everybody else
You don't look like everybody else
You don't look like everybody else
Everybody
I see you lookin' what you lookin' at I be the one ta be not normal, baking a bitch in my hot caramel
Shaking the chick and I got carnal, taking a flick and I shot porno
Naked and wicked is not formal, wakin' the sick when I got born on the funny farm
Warned I'd be on you like, on ya like orno
In the morn got to horn the corn holes, look at the six and the seven on my arm
Though nigga I'm totally torn yo
Obli get an I'm boss in this shit, but you're quick to get a girlfriend
With this off sum script then I'm rockin this chick,
When I get this pop and take a pic and never know wen I'm odd from exist,
Ants in you're pants ill make ya dance
A hip hop comist I'm rockin this bitch, and ya niggas is far from it
Mr mojo risin' told me to flip the flow and go rhymin,
So I went to get the doe an in no time in,
Everybody gets the bro they go n9nin,
Ordinary people think were fuking insane (hell yea)
So you punk mutha fuckas gonna be stuck when I rein!!!! [Chorus] You don't look like everybody else
You don't look like everybody else
You don't look like everybody else
Everybody
I see you lookin' what you lookin' at
