Nothing At All (Full Instrumental)

Rob Dougan

I want to be still
I want to walk into your grave
Where I can shudder in peace
'Till all our cares have blown away
YeahLet the whole world fall away
And fall into my arms
Stay with me
I don't know how long we've got left
And so, I'm asking you to forgive me,I learn as I go, to float far away
Into silence
And just watch your face, and find some kind of grace
In that quiet bliss
Can I stay and say nothing at all
At allWhere will we go when we get old
When the bustle and the noise get too frightening
When each and every angry word
Is banished to the past
That's when I thinkWe'll learn as we go, to float far away
Into silence
And I watch your face, and find patience and grace
In each line there
Wake each day, up from nothing at all
At allAnd these words thay I say
They mean nothing at all
At allWill you walk into the grave with me?
Will you leave this angry world
Soft and wistful
To sink into the dark, dank earth
And never reappear, would be blissfulTo float far away, into eternal space
And God's silence
Where I watch your face, and find patience and grace
In each line there
Drift away, and end up nothing at all
At allFind the grace, to be nothing at all
At all
Fade away, and end up nothing at all
At all
