

Top of the World (Alive In Lugano)

Gotthard

Hello, hello , hello, is there anybody listening in the crowd
Don't think twice, ain't gonna waste no more time The clock's running , and I see the end of the line
It's calling , so watch me leave ~em all behind You can turn me loose, you can call my name
I'll keep climbing higher
I will touch the sky, as the eagle flies
On my way to be there
Right on top of the world Hello, hello, hello, now I'm rolling like a freight train down the track
Don't look back, don't try to get in my way Oh I'm coming , well I've got my eye on the flame
And I'm running , cause I was born to play the game You can turn me loose, you can call my name
I'll keep climbing higher
I will touch the sky , as the eagle flies
On my way to be there
Right on top of the world, oh Be part. It's not an illusion
This is my one desire
There's no confusion
Well I can set the world on fire You can turn me loose, you can call my name
I'll keep climbing higher
I will touch the sky, as the eagle flies
On my way to be there
Right on top of the world, oh
I'm on fire On my way to be there
Right on top of the world
