Son And Daughter

Queen

I want you woman
Tried to be a son and daughter rolled into one
You said you'd equal any man for having your fun
Ooh, now didn't you feel surprised to find
The cap just didn't fit ?
The world expects a man
To buckle down and shovel shit
What'll you do for loving
When it's only just begun ?
I want you to be a woman

Tried to be a teacher and a fisher of men
An equal people preacher
Will you lead us all the same ?
Ooh, well I travelled around the world
And found a brand new word for day
Ooh, watching the time mustn't linger behind
Pardon me I have to get away
What'll you think of heaven
If it's back from where you came
I want you to be a woman
I want you to be a woman
Yeah
Gotta save the world
Ooh, I've just begun
Alright
