

Beauty and Madness

Fra Lippo Lippi

Over there, just beneath the moon
There's a man with a burden to keep
Now sleep will fall, washout, rags and Paperbags, homes and lives passing by
Who will see the beauty in your life,
And who will be there to hear you when you call.
Who will see the madness in your life, and who
Will be there to catch you if you fall.
Dreams run wild, as lovers find their way
Through the night. not a care in the world.
And over there, oh the twinkling of the lights
Harbour lights. say goodnight one more time.
