Don't tell anyone
Don't tell anyone
Don't tell anyoneWe share a joke in the
Well fine, know how to make you laugh
No hang ups between us
Not like the other girls and love
You're different, confident
Our secret's safe with me
Red lipstick on my cheek
Your love must last all week, girlI can't tell, can't tell, can't tell anyone
What we've got going on
Don't tell, don't tell, don't tell anyone
What we've got going on
Hold hands, got plans
Don't tell anyone
What we've got going on
Can't tell, can't tell, can't tell anyoneDon't tell anyone
Don't tell anyone
Don't tell anyoneOur love is what others could never come to understand
But we like clothes, your heart beats slow
And I can hear it with my hand
We love it, if I ever
Ever caught your legs wrapped around me
Tear you from out my arms
And we'd be history, girlCan't tell, can't tell, can't tell anyone
What we've got going on
Don't tell, don't tell, don't tell anyone
What we've got going on
Hold hands, got plans,
Don't tell anyone
What we've got going on
Can't tell, can't tell, don't tell anyoneDon't let them see us holding hands
Our love's one thing they'll never understandDon't let them see us holding hands
Cos our love's one thing they'll never understandCan't tell, can't tell, can't tell anyone
What we've got going on
Don't tell, don't tell, don't tell anyone
What we've got going on
Hold hands, got plans,
Don't tell anyone

What we've got going on
Can't tell, can't tell, can't tell anyoneDon't tell anyone
Don't tell anyone
Don't tell anyone
Don't tell anyone
