H.O.L.Y

Bobby van Jaarsveld

When the sun had left, and the winter came and the sky I thought, only bring the rain,
I sit in darkness, all broken hearted.

I couldn't find a day, I didn't feel alone, I never meant to cry, started losing hope - but somehow baby, you broke through and saved me!

You're an angel, tell me you're never leaving, 'cause you're first thing, I know I can believe in...

You're holy, holy, holy, holy - I'm high on lovin' you, high on lovin' you!
You're holy, holy, holy, holy - I'm high on lovin' you, high on lovin' you!

You made the brightest days, from the darkest nights, you're the river bank, where I was baptised, cleanse from the demons, that were... killin' my freedom.

Let me lay you down, give me to ya, get you singin' babe, halleluja! We'll be touchin, we'll be touching heaven.

You're an angel, tell me you're never leaving, 'cause you're the first thing, I know I can believe in...

You're holy, holy, holy, holy - I'm high on lovin' you, high on lovin' you!
You're holy, holy, holy, holy - I'm high on lovin' you, high on lovin' you!

I don't need these stars, cause you shine for me (shine for me), like fire in my vains, you're my ecstacy...you're my ecstacy...

You're holy, holy, holy, holy - I'm high on lovin' you, high on lovin' you!
You're holy, holy, holy, holy - I'm high on lovin' you, high on lovin' you!

You're the healing hands, where it used to hurt, you're my saving grace, you're my kinda church, you're HOLY!
