

Let It Go

Bap Kennedy

Oh the weight of history
Drags us down, you and me
When our scores have all been settled
Do you think we will be free?
Empires rise and empires fall
Nothing in this world will last
And the only way is forward
Even God can't change the pastLet it go, let it go
Let it all melt away like the snow
In your heart you must know
The time has come and gone
Let it go
If your dream has come to nothing
You must find another dreamLeave the other on the mountain
It was never meant to meLet it go, let it go
Let it all melt away like the snow
In your heart you must know
The time has come and gone
Let it go
Let it go, let it go
Let it all melt away like the snow
In your heart you must know
The time has come and gone
Let it go
