

Night Train

Matthew Ebel

Yet another lonely day
awake.
When Im with you
I am dreaming.
I want sleep to come to me
once in a while.
But your bed is all you see and Im tired.So Ill take the night train home to where I belong.
Though it leads away from you
I know somethings wrong.
So I take the night train home,
but Ill leave some room so you can take the night train too.
Ill be waiting alone.Seven nights a week
I want you,
but all you want
are your toys.
Loving me is not
convenient, no,
but its worth the time
or so Im told.Ill be waiting for you.
