Victim

Eighteen Visions

One, two, three goYou can't be saved, you've gone and dug your grave
And it's getting deeper by the minute
Well, you had to turn your back, ain't cutting you no slack
Hooked on your lies you had me going(So give me one)
Good reason I should be forgivin' you
When I don't care anyway
(So give me two)
Good reasons I should be forgivin' you
When I'm the victim todayBut you threw it all away, still gettin' high today
You'll crash and burn before you know it, yeah
Addicted to your lies, think I've been victimized
Same day, same night, same situation(So give me one)
Good reason I should be forgivin' you
When I don't care anyway
(So give me two)
Good reasons I should be forgivin' you
When I'm the victim todayGoAnd I feel like I'm the victim
And I feel like I'm the victimI feel like I have been criticized, yeah, yeah
By every little thing you say, now I don't really care
'Cause you're the one that's going down
And now I've left you here for dead(So give me one)
Good reason I should be forgivin' you
When I don't care anyway
(So give me two)
Good reasons I should be forgivin' you
When I'm the victim today(So give me one)
Good reason I should be forgivin' you
When I don't care anyway
(So give me two)
Good reasons I should be forgivin' you
When I'm the victim today(So give me one)
Good reason I should be forgivin' you
(So give me two)
Good reasons I should be forgivin' youAnd I feel like I'm the victim
