For God Sakes

Absentstar

Sleep in a bed I made
Wake in another place
Cold on the warmest day
I dream its a big mistakeRunning aground
Mile after mile
Shouting all the whileFor god sakes, hold it down
The noises overtake the silence I create
For god sakes, Im calling out
To anyone who fears falling on deaf earsFar from the way I felt
Hunt for my former self
Why did I even try and the strangest thing is Remembering how I got this wayRunning aground
Mile after mile
Shouting all the whileFor god sakes, hold it down
The noises overtake the silence I create
For god sakes, Im calling out
To anyone who fears falling on deaf earsAnd if you get it someday
What of yourself remainsOh, and for god sakes, hold it down
The noises overtake the silence I create
For god sakes, for god sakes
For god sakes, hold it down
For god sakes, hold it down
