The Divine Feminine, an album by Mac Miller
(The Divine Feminine)

OhLove

Love, love, love, love (sex)

Love, love, love, love (sex) This one don't frown when I'm the wrong

I lose my mind and I lose control

I see your eyes look through my soul

Don't be surprised this all I know

I felt the highs and they felt like you

See a love like mine is too good to be true

And you too divine to just be mine

You remind me of the color blue

Girl I'm so in love with you

Girl I'm so in love with you Yeah, yeah Baby you were everything I ever wanted

Bottle, wedding ring it's in my pocket

Planned to ask the other day

Knew you'd run away

So I guess I just forgot it

Remember when you went away to college

I was on the phone, we ain't no talkin'

Past, present, future, all the gossip, God damn

Puppy love ain't what it was darlin'

Feelings that we have are so alarmin'

I can make you laugh

I can break the glass

If we made it last, it'd be a bargain

Mr. Charmin' that is my department

You was there before the fancy cars and

You was there when I was just a starvin' artist

When the car was havin' trouble startin'

Now we got our own apartment, same box for the mail

Same hemp for the laundry, the food in the fridge is stale

And this mornin' you cooked the eggs with the kale

I tried to hit it while you was gettin' dressed

You said "all you ever think about is sex"

I'm like oh well

You know me so well

And if this will make you lay I swear I won't tell

And every time I call your phone you better pick up your cell
I swear to God I'ma freak out if it go straight to voice mail
Well I'm the jealous type
But I swear that ass what Heaven's like
When I'm in that pussy it's a better life
That's the only way I'm tryna end the night
That's my only chance, I better get it right Take your time my baby
Cause I'm waitin' for you, for you
I know I make your mind go crazy
But yes I'm waitin' right here for you, for you You get closer with me run away
All I ever know is the color gray
Your loving ways bring me sunshine
I found an angel so divine
Heaven probably not the same without you
But now you're in my world
In my world, ah
Ah
