Bitches

Miss Lady Pinks

Attention!
Bitches, bitches
I'm miss lady pinks
Bitches, bitches
....
I'm keeping it gangsta 'till tha day that i die
Still doing my thing when time passes you by
You can say whatever but im still right here
You hate me even more cuz i make myself clear
I tell it like it is
I'm a bitch like that
Expose you in a minute, you can't take that back
I'm miss lady pinks from that san gabriel valley
Hi power life i'm from that l.A county
You may claim you know me from back in tha dayz
I'm still tha same bitch with my crazy wayz
I'm a grown woman, but i get my respect
So if you run into me again, don't you forget..I keep it solid
Don't you try to argue with me. Cuz you ain't gonna win
Bitch fucken please. I've seen a lot of bitches quake when vatos fold
Cut them out offf my circle with tha quikness out cold

When time passes you by
You get to see some of your close ones
Can become enemies `
'till your dirty in a minute, and you will find
Who your real friends
Just give it time

Bitches, bitches
You ain't getting the best of me
Bitches, bitches
I'm m.L.P
You can't fuck with me

Back in tha days i had a lot of bitches rolling with me
I was the only one with a car, keeping it g
All these dumb bitches just wanted to get fucked
I can't remember tha names of all tha bitches i socked

And all tha fools that i slapped smacked put on check
For tryna cheat me like these hoes i used to hang with
They got me fucked up, but at the end they respect it
Not every bitch is a hoe they learn to except it
They did alright, and i was known to alwayz want to fight
Sometimes i waz wrong, and i still waz right
And i waz hard headed
And i didnt give a fuck
I waz young, curious, just running a muck
Got arrest several timez for stupid shit
I got control of my life and what i made of it
I waz in a diffrent tip so i shut them bitches
They can keep on having babies while i'm handling my bussiness

When time passes you by
You get to see some of your close ones
Can become enemies `
'till your dirty in a minute, and you will find
Who your real friends
Just give it time

Bitches, bitches
You ain't getting the best of me
Bitches, bitches
I'm m.L.P
You can't fuck with me

Isn't it a bitch, how people you know can turn to shit
Lose the most for tha least, over stupid shit
Like a lifeless tweaker without a clue
An addiction for tha weak, thatz how i lost a few
Then jealousy waz another reason pay no attention to tha haters, thatz how i got even
They kept feenin, reminiscing on the past
If they had one wish, they would take it all back
But fucked that!
Once you brake that trust, once broken why fix it.. Loyalty is a must
I ain't perfect, shit but i learn from my mistakes
As i grew older now i got what it takez
Not confused like a fat bitch in denial
Thinking shez still cute lookin outa style
I handle my shit, i keep it real and i dont give a shit about tha way you feel

When time passes you by
You get to see some of your close ones
Can become enemies `

'till your dirty in a minute, and you will find
Who your real friends
Just give it time

Bitches, bitches
You ain't getting the best of me
Bitches, bitches
I'm m.L.P
You can't fuck with me
