

Claustrophobia (Peter Antlers Remix)

Choir of Young Believers

Gonna go where wild flowers grow
[Unverified] river
My daddy told me we were baptized in gasoline
No one deserves this, God I really love You so
Oh, where do you go when it all goes down?
You battle balance, your parents back
To all the thoughts that they guilt your youth
No one deserves this, God I thought I loved You so
Oh, you gave me claustrophobia
Claustrophobia, ah
Where do we go when there's nothing left
You show you love?
My daddy told me we were baptized in gasoline
No one deserves this, God I thought I loved You so
Oh, you gave me claustrophobia
Claustrophobia, ah
