

Northern Line

Moddi

The ink wouldn't dry and the snow didn't melt so I set the house on fire to explain how I felt 'cause all that I am is only things that will be afraid to let go, afraid to move on, afraid to be free now I gather all the things I left behind I'm still here fast asleep on the northern line we stayed up all night and slept through our days now I'm tired of the lies and the hours gone to waste and all along the thought of this has scared me so but if I fight it, if I never try I'll never make it out I'll never grow now the night comes on and no one wonders
why
I'm still here fast asleep on the northern line I'm all yours fast asleep on the northern line mmm.

Song Discussions is protected by U.S. Patent 9401941. Other patents pending.

Lyrics provided by

<https://damnyrics.com/>