Whirlwind Heat

I fell in love with you
You stole my heart
Now I can't stand you
You love someone else

and you, you never even loved me
you, you never even liked me
and if I could change it all
I don't think I even would I've learned so much from you
the romance betrayal too

I saw what lies can do Make you sad and lose
If I don't leave you You'll ruin what was true

and you, you never even loved me
you, you never even liked me
and if I could change it all
I don't think I even would
the romance betrayal too

na, na, na, . . .
