

I Miss You Like I Miss You

Chad VanGalen

So you're headed down those tracks
And you're never coming back again
You've got a lot of stuff to pack
Yeah that load might break your back somedayCause you've got a lot of secrets
And that's a fact
So come on back, alrightYou better believe what you're seeing now
You better believe what you're seeing
You better believe what you're seeing now
You better believe what you're seeing, yeah what you're seeing babeYou gotta expect me to wonder who
You gotta expect me to wonder who
Is loving you
Now you're headed down those tracks
All I can see is your back again
You left a lot of stuff behind
Most of it is in my mind this time
And I miss you like I miss you
And that's a fact
So come on back
