

Lovekiller - Cuorelivido

Alex Palmieri

 baby i used to be the one who 's fallin' in love completely baby 'couse i was so navy it took me a long long time just to understand that the only true love that i can take is by my self!
so here i am once again, i'm picking up all the pieces i just want to be loved for once in my life never thought it could be so complicated you know my heart it's been violated everytime i risk all myself but in the end i get burn don't wanna be hurted no more i don't wanna feel so wrong anymore i just need somebody to love baby you need to know, if you want me you gotta show that you'll never hurt me like the other lovekiller before you can catch me on the floor, you can kiss me if you want but you've gotta work if you wanna take a place inside my unbreakable unbreakable heart entra nel mio cuore livido fai riaccendere quel battito fammi credere ancora che c'è una speranza per me used and knocked down like a paper doll is this the only way that i know baby to be loved did you ever feel like when you give all by your self but it don't matter 'couse you're never enough (just 'couse you're never enough) don't wanna be nobody else wanna be loved for who i am don't need anybody by my side if he's not strong enough to fight don' wanna be a victim of a plan i can't denie i cant pretend i just wanna have ma chance to falling in love again don't wanna be hurted no more
 i don't wanna feel so wrong anymore
that you'll never hurt me like the other lovekiller before

e adesso basta! rivoglio indietro le ore perse di sonno mentre pensavo a te e agli omicida che non hanno avuto forza per restare ma forza sufficiente per farmi del male e li sento ancora i tuoi lividi addosso e c'Ã¨ l'ho con me stesso (io ti ho lasciato cambiare per sempre una parte di me) e lo so, nell'amore sono quello che rischia tutto e perde sempre
that you'll never hurt me like the other lovekiller before
entra nel mio cuore livido fai riaccendere quel battito fammi credere ancora che c'Ã¨ una speranza per me dal momento che mi scopro Ã¨ nelle tue mani il gioco quanta determinazione avrai per rimanere inside my unbreakable heart
