

Ojai

Ray LaMontagne

I've been a Savior, a Sideman, a Stranger
Stung by anger, burned by law
Feel so Scattered, like nothing really matters anymore,
Put that sign out, on my front door Hitchin a ride on the PCH
I got some things I need to say
Callin' out a friend of mine I don't know where the years have gone,
Just know I'm worse for hangin' on
Maybe it'd be best if I just let things lie
Guess I'm never gonna get back to Ojai I knew a good man, he was a break in the Clouds, hangin' so low down
It's got me to thinking, it's not like he gave in,
He just never got that second win Hitchin a ride on the PCH
I got some things I need to say
Callin' out a friend of mine I don't know where the years have gone,
Just know I'm worse for hangin' on
Maybe it'd be best if I just let things lie
Guess I'm never gonna get back to Ojai Ojai-Ojai I've been a Savior, a Sideman, a Stranger
Son, hedge your wager, cause life aint fair
I been shaken, sorely mistaken, this path I've taken
Aint goin nowhere Hitchin a ride on the PCH
I got some things I need to say
Callin' out a friend of mine I don't know where the years have gone,
Just know I'm worse for hangin' on
Maybe it'd be best if I just let things lie
Guess I'm never gonna get back to Ojai
Guess I'm never gonna get back to Ojai

Lyrics provided by

<https://damnllyrics.com/>