Do You Believe in Me

Eric Gadd

She was workin' everyday down the street
Selling flowers
Pretending she was blind
So I said, "Won't you please believe me
Instead of running 'round and
Laughing all the time?"
She was five foot four and lonely
As she walked into my room,
"So this is where you stay"
But when I tried to tell her
About these lonely walls
There was nothing, I could sayDo you believe in me
I'm yours you're mine
And though you refuse to see, I'll be behindAnyday & anyway another rain had to come
And it got to me as well, well, well
When your losing what you came for
In the first place it gets fogged
Believe me, I can tell, I can tell
So I slip into my lonely room
And saying to myself
It doesn't matter if I fall
But then I heard some noises at my door and far away
There was somebody, somebody who shoutedDo you believe in me
I'm yours, you're mine
And though you refuse to see
I'll be behindDo you believe in me
I'm yours, you're mine
And though you refuse to see
I'll be behind
Do you want to ? (do you want today)
I'll be hearing you someday say
Do you want my love
Do you want my loveShe was workin' everyday down the street
Selling flowers, pretending she was blind
So I said won't you please believe me
Instead of running 'round and
Laughing all the time (Somebody who shouted)
Do you believe in me
I'm yours you're mine

And though you refuse to see
I'll be behindDo you believe in me
I'm yours you're mine
And though you refuse to see
I'll be behindDo you believe in me
I'm yours you're mine
And though you refuse to see
I'll be behind
