

Last Will And Testament

Eric Clapton

(feat. Eric Clapton) Well I met this old woman

She was hard as nails

I think she just come out of the County jail

Would I loan her some money

Just to pay her rent

If I would she would put me

In her

Last Will and Testament Well I've got lots of children

An ex-wife or two

I never hear from them

'til the bills are due

The money I gave them

They already spent

If I could just help 'em out

They would put me in their

Last Will and Testament You know I'm goin' over sixty

I'm older than most

It won't be long now

I'll be nothin' but a ghost

My intentions

It's my intent

To leave all of them people

Out of my

Last Will and Testament And when it's all over

They put you in the ground

Send my belongings

To the Lost and Found

My intentions

It's my intent

To leave all of them people

Out of my

Last Will and Testament
