If I Was a Doo Doo Doo

Bill Wyman

If I was a doo doo doo
I'd paint half the world and sky blue
Fill it full of clouds for youIf I was a doo doo doo doo
I'd read Kublai Khan in Zulu
Down the line that takes to youIf I was a doo doo doo doo doo
All the choo choo trains in Timbuktu
Couldn't lead my tracks away from youIf I was a doo doo doo doo doo doo
Even if my spine was snapped in two
I would remain upon the rack for youBut I'm a dumb dumb dumb
My heart is numb
I'm a dumb dumb dumb
My heart is numbIf I was a doo doo doo
I'd divide the force in two
And tried to let go for youIf I was a doo doo doo doo
Hamlet's ghost would haunt my igloo
To be or not to beIf I was a doo doo doo doo doo
All the sacred cows in Kathmandu
Couldn't match the shrine I built for youIf I was a doo doo doo doo doo doo
Celebrating mass with a kangaroo
I would bless the bread and wine for youBut I'm a dumb dumb dumb
My heart is numb
But I'm a dumb dumb dumb
My heart is numbdumb dumb dumb
My heart is numb
Dumb dumb dumb
My heart is numb
