

French Film Blurred (live)

Wire

I don't understand your plea to live
Or the guy's wish to take or give
However, as backing away
He fell and lay dead amongst the firework display
It's not quite the way to say your goodbyes
It's not quite the way to behave
Secured you a concrete grave
Beneath the motorwayGold scissors cut the ribbon and set them loose
On the opening days the vibrations will shake your bones
I suppose that's the disadvantage
Of not speaking a second languageA second language
A second language
A second language
A second language
(Bad reception results in blurred perception)A second language
A second language
