A God Ruled Time

Adorned Brood

In a time, where magic spells and Gods ruled
In a time, where Wotan held his hand above us
Welcome in a time, in which we can live as once
Spread your wings, spread your wings and flyLife in the dark you open the wrong door
Life in our Asgard we know it's our endevourI, I don't tell you lies
Close, close your eyes and hear
Follow me into a time where father and son go on journey
To teach to fight, to learn to killLife in the dark you open the wrong door
Life in our Asgard we know it's our endevourThree trials must be passed
Fight, kill without fear
When the son would be pass
(As a warrior)
Fight, kill without fearIn a time, where magic spells and Gods ruled
In a time where Wotan held his hand above us
Welcome into a time, ruled by Wotan
Sooner or later you must understand
