

Rising Tide

Grinspoon

Rising tide, we connect
To the rising high, no comment All those lonely nights, all undressed
To the rising tide, we connect We connect, we connect
We connect, we connect We're not here, in this room
We still can be there soon All those empty nights , left alone
To the rising tide no one knows We connect, we connect
We connect, we connect Rising tide, rising tide
Rising tide, rising tide We connect, we connect
We connect, we connect
