

Arctic Night Lights

Bear Girl

Advisory - the following lyrics contain explicit language:

Part one proclaimed loss in open sea
Play your part and then you leave
Under your breath say i'm losing it
Losing it - using itConfide in me
Learn the lessons as you go
But don't repeat the words
Lost in the waves

But i embrace in all my tangent daysThough i know you'll never hold your breath again
I hope you wish me well
And you were never just a character to me
Though you really sold yourself
So well, oh wellDon't know where it was you lost me
While we sailed on your sea
Will it remember you?
Will you remember me?
My greed produced this evil
But in the back of my fucking head
I don't regret itI see you exactly as you are
My hatred so clear before
I feel far away from everyone now
