Oxygen

Blackfield

So far away
We lost the way
There's no oxygen left on our planetEmpty words
Break on our lips
There's no oxygen left on our planetEveryone sleeping with their guns
Someone's going to dieSo much noise
We're a bunch of boys
We were born to lie
I feel alive
Just when I cry
There's no oxygen left on our planetThings we've said
And then regret
Someone's going to dieSo much noise
We're a bunch of boys
We were born to lie
Everyone...
Everyone sleeping with their guns
Someone's going to dieSo far away
We lost the way
There's no oxygen left on our planet
