

Once In the Morning

Diana Ross

Just once in the morning
Once in the evening
Just once in the morning
Once in the evening
Ooh, baby, ooh Just once in the morning
Once in the evening
Once in the morning
Once in the evening That'll be enough
That'll be enough
Of your good, good lovin' stuff That'll be enough
Ooh yeah
Take away the yearning
Take away the burning Baby, baby
Just once in the morning
Once in the evening
Just once in the morning
Once in the evening It's not all you're thinking
I promise you we'll make it, very hard
Our love has to do with
Your conditions as to how and when we start It's gotta be once in the morning
Once in the evening
Once in the morning
Once in the evening That'll be enough
That'll be enough
Of your good, good lovin' stuff That'll be enough
That'll be enough
Take away the yearning
Take away the burning Baby, baby
Just once Yeah, ooh, ooh yeah It's seven when I rise
Eleven, close my eyes
It's seven when I rise
Eleven, close my eyes I want you to be, be, be, be, be there
I want you to be, be, be, be, be there
Be there Seven when I rise
Eleven, close my eyes
I promised that'll be
Good enough for me, yeah Once, once in the evening
Once in the morning
Once in the evening Once, once in the morning

Once in the evening
Once in the morning
Once in the eveningOnce in the morning
(Give it to me, give it to me)
Once in the evening
Once in the morning
(Give it to me, give it to me)
Once in the eveningOnce, once in the morning
Once in the evening
Once, once in the eveningOnce in the morning
Once in the evening
Once in the morning
Once in the evening
