She's In Love

Savatage

She likes what she sees
Starts to drop to her knees
Gazing with an appetite
Licks her lips in sheer delight
She's one of a kind
Sight for sore eyes
It's all she needs to be happy
And I bet she never knew
It would taste so goodNo she's in love
I know she's in love
Oh no no she's in love
I know she's in loveShe just loves to please
Kiss of life her specialty
Oh how well she knows
Just how to make it grow
She's one of a kind
A sight for sore eyes
It's all she needs to be happy
And I bet she never knew it would taste so good!No she's in love
I, yeah yeah she's in love
I know she's in love
Oh yeah she's in love
