

Dead But Dreaming

Edge of Sanity

Cold, pale, no rest I'm laid no shivers from inside. Entombed and forgotten, here, forever I shall hide. Feel no blood flow in me. But I feel so alive. I feel my body slowly rot in my wet grave. Deceased and putrefacted but my soul I have saved.
Feel no blood flow in me, feel no blood.
When I have ceased, and death is real.
When I'm lowered down. Beyond my destiny. Past the day mourning. Enter the twilight of death thru the night of possession, to the dawn of dreams. Dead but dreaming. Enter the dawn of dreams, enter the dawn of the dead... As I die, as I fade. In my dreams, I am awake. As I fade from this rotting world, dead as hell.
Trapped in myself. My life among the living was nothing but pain, but now I'm set free beyond my destiny. I've been the one who's giving. Slowly drained of life.
Dream my enemy, forever I'm your sleep.
