I Live the Bad Life (You Make It Worse)

Inhale Exhale

Lets stick together and show them
Youre not an idiot anymore
Well face this all right now
And not flinch one bitClenched fist, eyes rolled back
It sends a shiver down his spine
You hate things so badly
And its worse for the ones who are lostYou give me a bad name
For who I try to be and what I try to do
Protect your heart from hatred
Its who I try to be and what I try to doIm not always right in my actions or my words
But Ill try to be a man this timePay attention to being real
And the lies you were taught will flee
You hate things so badly
And its worse for the ones who are lostYou give me a bad name
For who I try to be and what I try to do
Protect your heart from hatred
Its who I try to be and what I try to doYou believed me
You believed meI hate you
You hate things so badly
And its worse for the ones who are lostYou give me a bad name
For who I try to be and what I try to do
Protect your heart from hatred
Its who I try to be and what I try to do
Try to do
