

Situation's Heavy

Sugababes

Making decisions about my life
It's up to me and I start to try
I can't keep running away Trust my instincts right or wrong
Refusing help, try to be strong
I'll fight this once today Here's my point of view
Wouldn't wanna offend you
Wanna do the best to prove
Push your face ain't gonna lose Deep and twisted but I refuse
Don't want find some help to choose
I'll just walk these tracks alone
Use it as a stepping stone Trying to face it all alone
Had to find my own way home
No matter how hard it may be
The situation's heavy I'm not growing old before my time
Even when there's warning signs
That consequently I can see
The situation's heavy, heavy How am I supposed to know
Where I want my life to go
If you always hold the plan And maybe I will learn to lead
It will be my own mistakes
That I can say that's who I am Here's my point of view
Wouldn't wanna offend you
Wanna do the best to prove
Push your face ain't gonna lose Deep and twisted but I refuse
Don't want find some help to choose
I'll just walk these tracks alone
Use it as a stepping stone Trying to face it all alone
Had to find my own way home
No matter how hard it may be
The situation's heavy I'm not growing old before my time
Even when there's warning signs
That consequently I can see
The situation's heavy, heavy Here's my point of view
Wouldn't wanna offend you
Wanna do the best to prove
Push your face ain't gonna lose Deep and twisted but I refuse
Don't want find some help to choose
I'll just walk these tracks alone
Use it as a stepping stone Trying to face it all alone

Had to find my own way home
No matter how hard it may be
The situation's heavy I'm not growing old before my time
Even when there's warning signs
That consequently I can see
The situation's heavy Trying to face it all alone
Had to find my own way home
No matter how hard it may be
The situation's heavy I'm not growing old before my time
Even when there's warning signs
That consequently I can see
The situation's heavy, heavy
