

Yellow Lights

Marissa Nadler

Yellow lights are free and gladly
Light the shadow gray behind me
Can you help her walk away again? Blue the color of the water
Mary and her devil daughter
Drinking rubies in the rain again Oh Mary, don't you die
Oh Mary, don't you die
'Cause of the color of your eyes Green the color of the grasses
Mary and her new blue lassies
Come a riding in the fall with me Gray the shades of all nights past me
Rid the blood inside the old tree
Come a riding in the fall with me Oh Mary, don't you die
Oh Mary, don't you die
'Cause of the color of your eyes
