

Sugar and Spice

All

Feel her love Watch her lie Fell her love Sugar and spice Watch her lie And everything nice But you've been riding on a great big lie But you've been riding on a great big lie I hate to break the news I hate to break the news But you can still take that girl Don't be fooled - she's not pure For what she's worth Get it through your head It will never feel the way it did Sugar and spice - in here you believed That first time Sugar and spice - you feel deceived Sugar and spice - now it's your turn to cry Sugar and spice - because it's all a great big lie What are girls made of? Sugar and spice Sugar and spice That's what they say What are they made of?
