

Barcelona

Russell Watson & Shaun Ryder

The summer sun set a vicious circus
When shadows held the world in place
But today I felt a chill in my apartment's coolest place
    Fuggi regal fantasima
    The village larks cannot be heard
    'Cause all the crows got panderers
    I can't escape these velvet drapes
    Don't want my rings to fall off my fingers
    Fuggi regal fantasima
    The mirror I find hard to face
    'Cause I fear it's a long way down
    Got to get away from here
    I think I know which hemisphere
Crazy me don't think there's pain in Barcelona
    They dance you 'round a waltz confound
    But I fear it's a long way down
    Yes I fear it's a long way down
    This road
    Even if that straw I pull
    And I got to fight that bull
Nothing really does compare to Barcelona
    Besides in Spain Don Juan's to blame
    But I fear it's a long way down
    Yes I fear it's a long way down
    'Cause I fear it's a long way down
    And I fear I won't be around
    Got to get away from here
Think I know which hem-hemisphere
    Make sure I have all my papers
    Laying out my summer clothes
Search for traps in vain like scratching
    So my suitcase I can close
