Trying to Forget

The Very Best Of Jim Reeves

Trying to forget the thrill of holding you
Will I ever stop thinking of hapiness we knew?
Who are you thinking of in your dreams at night?
Who are you longing for when you hug your pillow tight?
But I'll forget, I'll forget
I know I will
Maybe I will find a heart
That's true and a love that's real
Trying to forget the times you broke my heart
Remembering how happy you made me at the start
Please, won't you listen I want you to know?
Though you have hurt me I still love you so
