

Aeon of Cold

Wolfheart

Coldness in the air
Autumn in shades of fire
Brings the age of snowfalls and ice
And sets the world in perpetual slumber
Frozen rain begins to pour and winter breeze arise
The earth stands still before the fall
The aeon of cold
Frozen to the core
White veil upon the earth
Glaciers will bury below
Ground frost unfolds
Frozen soil conceals forevermore
Behold the white and deserted woodlands
Ice lifeblood of nature
Pitch black and lifeless waters
Desolated and bleak
Isolated and stark
Light's creation now forsaken and dark
