Quiet Storm

Storm Deisel

(Verse 1)
i make you sick, you make me sick and baby that's ok.
let's call it quits i'm tired of fighting with you everyday.
don't let the door hit you in the place where i've been tapping that, i ain't worried about it won't find another brother like me baby you'll be back.
stop fellas you know just what i'm talking bout especially when they run their mouth, and ladies you know what you be doing to us.
damn baby i give up.
(Chorus)
your even beautiful when your angry,
is it too late to say that i'm sorry baby lay down let my lips do the talking, is your body listening.
the quiet after the storm, to be inside of you, if that's the only thing that keeps us cool i'll do what i have to do to be one with you, baby i love the sounds, the quiet after the storm.
(Verse 2)
my intentions are good i want you to stay but it never seems to work out that way, i could write you a song to tell you what's wrong, blame it on my friends and tell you all the lies that i could think of and fellas you know just what i'm talking bout, if i let it go then i'll be missing out and ladies you know what you be doing to us.
your doing it right now i give up.
(Chorus)
your even beautiful when your angry,
is it too late to say that i'm sorry baby lay down let my lips do the talking, is your body listening.
the quiet after the storm, to be inside of you,
if that's the only thing that keeps us cool i'll do what i have to do to be one with you, baby i love the sounds,
the quiet after the storm.
(Bridge)
why, why tell me why we hurt each other, why , why do we end up this way, and i said why,
why girl it's something so much deeper why,
why i guess we'll keep it this way.
(Chorus)
your even beautiful when your angry,
is it too late to say that i'm sorry baby lay down let my lips do the talking, is your body listening.
the quiet after the storm, to be inside of you,
if that's the only thing that keeps us cool i'll do what i have to do to be one with you, baby i love the sounds,
the quiet after the storm.
