

Lois and Clark

American Supermodel

Verse

Tell me, tell me just one thing

Do you believe, do you believe in me?

Cause I can bend the bars, I can bend the bars that keep you down.Chorus

Keep you...

Feeling scared inside, I'm gonna take you for a flight, tonightVerse

You'll feel like a child again, floating high upon the wind

And all around the world they're calling out your nameChorus

When you're feeling scared inside, I'm gonna take you for a flight, tonight

Cause I get lonely too, when I think of you

And the trouble we get intoBridge

My capes been torn and feel somewhat less than zero

She doesn't know that I'm alive

Sometimes it's not so great to be the superhero

Choking on her kryptoniteVerse One RepeatFeeling scared inside, I'm gonna take you for a flight, tonight

Cause I get lonely too, when I think of you

Only superhero's cryWhoa whoa, I can bend the bars

Whoa whoa, do you believe in me?
