

Not A Sinner Nor A Saint

Alcazar

Tell me your destination
Could need some inspiration
Don't make too much of it
Now let's not analyze This is a game with no rules
I won't comit to I do
All I can say for sure is
What will be will be In days of joy and lack of sorrow (lack of sorrow)
I live my life the way I planned I am not a sinner nor a saint
Not that I would loose my head and faint
Every time we touch, no
Am I forgiven
Living and loving my way I am not a sinner nor a saint
You never gonna break my heart, I ain't
Gonna let it happen, no
Am I forgiven
Confessions I make in the name of myself Am I a badboy, maybe
Am I a sadboy, let's see
I can't remember crying
Since I was a child Don't need no babysitter
No I am not that bitter
I get my satisfaction
Every now and then In days of joy and lack of sorrow (lack of sorrow)
I live my life the way I planned I am not a sinner nor a saint
Not that I would loose my head and faint
Every time we touch, no
Am I forgiven
Living and loving my way I am not a sinner nor a saint
You never gonna break my heart, I ain't
Gonna let it happen, noo
Am I forgiven
Confessions I make in the name of myself Ah
Not that I would loose my head and faint
Every time we touch, noo
Am I forgiven
Living and loving my way I am not a sinner nor a saint
You never gonna break my heart, I ain't
Gonna let it happen, noo
Am I forgiven

Confessions I make in the name of myself
