Meridian Leeward

The Nazz

I'm a human being now but I used to be a pig 'Til they shortened up my nose and they made me wear a wig I'm afraid the things on piggy farm will never be the same Since they picked me for this job and they stuck me with a name It's a name, it's name, who ever heard of a pig with a name like

Meridian Leeward - that's my name
I fly around the sky in a big jet plane
I'm a flash ace pilot, got my name on the wing I hang around with people and they don't suspect a thing
You look like a person but you know you're a pig

I'm not afraid of dying from some mad man's gun or knife
When I was still a piggy, dying was a way of life
I'm not a piggy anymore and I don't share that dread
The other day for breakfast I ate half of Uncle Fred I wonder who ate the other half of Fred?

I think I'd rather be a cop
I think that's what I'd like to be I'd show you people a thing or two
If a man in blue starts beating on you Look out 'cause it might be me
You look like a cop but you know you're a pig

Lyrics powered by lyrics.tancode.com written by RUNDGREN, TODD HARRY Lyrics Â© EMI Music Publishing

Lyrics provided by https://damnlyrics.com/