

(who Says) Rock Is Dead

Presence

Enter my Delorean time machine back to the future we go to explore the rock scene all the while my style's McFly
even when I die
big props to L.I.
South Bronx
Bedstuy
Bacdaf*cup
this ain't Onyx pave the way for Dr. Dre and his Chronic the Gravediggaz ebonically demonic Nasty Nas and his supersonic phonic K-R-S-One Attack
with the Boom Bap
on the scene in Queens with Kool G Rap LA back in the day a Hundred Miles And Runnin forever gunnin with NWA [Chorus]Who says rock is dead are you ready to bang your head c'mon yeah
bang your head
enough said
Imagination is the key to be
I let my mind fly free the second coming of the white emcee settin forth a prerequisite I know you're tryin to get with this amazin caucasian persuasion always on some next shit perpetual rhyme delivery an enigmatic mystery you know I'm fit to be goin down in history Biggie Smalls and Tupac we mourn now behold Jay Slim

another legend is born

Headbangin and slangin as I enter the Wu-Tang Hoo-Bangin with the Westside Connect gang Respect is Hard To Earn like my paycheck

Protect Ya Neck

from the blast of the Tek & Steele

Bucktown

Duck Down

just tryin to B-Real like Cypress Hill with my License To Ill

I Kill At Will

word to Rakim

yo it's Time To Build

[Chorus]I flow about what I know in the process try to grow no I've never been to the ghetto and I'll probably never go the wrath of an intelligent white kid with a mic gripped tight a lyrical fight ensues

you lose

gave ya brain blacks & blues knocked ya out

stole ya shoes

hit a spliff and took another sip of the booze shut yer yapper

I'm the cracker rapper that's makin all the rules refuse and I'll prepare your moms for the bad news

[Bridge]Some call it a fad it's a natural evolution of music a few abuse it

I refuse to lose it

it's part of my heart

it's for the kids

not the music critics to tear it apart

I'm calling it the Peter Pan Theory you can keep that lo-fi throwback crap 'cause I don't want it near me and if ya can't hear me/start a band with "t-h-e" and you too can be a flash in the pan ? can't forget the Outkast

Goodie Mo-B

the D-O-double-G

so shall I Proceed to rock the mic like MOP

Run-DMC

a Tribe called Hip-Hop will always run through me

[Chorus]
