Fail

Takida

I can feed your hunger too (???)
I can start a riot with just one open hand
I can make the freshest thunder understand the fear
Make the devil cry, a snap and a fade awayBut I can't tell you I feel all the time
I can't fool you to stay homeI can start a new religion, and it will never die
I can crush a dream with just the pick of a knife
Make the machine feel, then create different minds(?)
Set the world on fire, bring you the endless sky
But I can't tell you I feel all the time
I can't fool you to stay home
I'm hanging on and mourning and feeling spite
The feeling when you came into my life
I got that feeling all the time
Time.
